WASHINGTON — The United States Mint will offer bags and rolls of 2015 Kennedy half dollars starting on Feb. 12 at noon Eastern Standard Time (EST).

All product options contain circulating finish Kennedy half dollars from the bureau’s facilities at Denver and Philadelphia that have never been placed into circulation. Each coin roll is wrapped in a United States Mint paper coin wrap that displays a “P” or “D” for its mint of origin and “$10” for its face value. Each bag is marked with a “P” and “D” for the mints of origin and “$100” for the face value of its contents.

Beginning this year, Kennedy half dollars in all numismatic products will feature the 1964 Gilroy Roberts image of President Kennedy. The obverse (heads side) has a strong but simple portrait of President John Fitzgerald Kennedy and the inscriptions “LIBERTY” and “IN GOD WE TRUST.” The reverse (tails side) design is based on the presidential seal and consists of a heraldic eagle with a shield on its breast holding a symbolic olive branch and a bundle of 13 arrows. A ring of 50 stars surrounds the design with the inscriptions “UNITED STATES OF AMERICA” and “HALF DOLLAR.”
